VICE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Once more it was almost like old time for me. I quite enjoyed myself on Wednesday night, no pressure and the running sheet as Gail called her agenda has not changed, then again, maybe it should. Having said that, I am more than happy that it was only a one-night stand.

We had number of guests, thanks to Bev and I must say Wayne was very informative and his presentation first class.

The Joker continues to elude us, I wonder if any member can remember if the Joker was ever drawn close to the beginning of the raffle.

Looks like this month is going to be busy what with three nights of parking attendant duty and a couple of hours on one of the entrances at the Jacaranda Festive, in between which we will squeeze in our Sundowner (see more information in this bulletin). Of course the latest James Bond movie afternoon is also just around the corner.

Next week is the District Governor's visit, again I am sure there is more on that in this bulletin. But I do see that numbers are restricted to 25, so get onto Trybooking as soon as possible in order not to miss out.

Yours in Rotary
Neil

Pat has extensive experience in Human Resources Management. She commenced her Human Resources Management career whilst working with United Credit Union Limited.

She spent 10 years working in New Zealand, where she held the role of Human Resources Manager for a mining company providing HR/IR support through a period of rapid growth within the organisation.

In 2011 Pat moved back to Western Australia and took up the position of Human Resources Manager with Alcoa's WA Mining Operations where she contributed to improving the alignment of the leadership with a focus on enhancing employment engagement. She then took on the position of Human Resources Manager for Alcoa's Pinjarra Refinery.

Pat originally joined Rotary in 2007 whilst living in Dunedin New Zealand, on returning to WA she joined the Rotary Club of Mandurah City, she is a Past President and a Paul Harris Fellow recipient. She held the position of District Chair for Rotary Four-Way Test Speech Contest up until March 2021. Pat also serves as a Board Member for OVIS Community Services and Midway Community Services and has previously served on the advisory Board for Passage - Peel (resource centre for homeless youth).

Pat holds a Certificate in Business (Credit Union) Management, Diploma in Human Resources and has undertaken studies in Business Law, and with further post-graduate studies in Human Resources and Industrial relations.
