PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Members and Friends

I, for one, had never heard of Circus W.A. although I had noticed the big top by Clancy's Fish Bar along Adelaide Street in Fremantle and thought no more about it. Well, that changed as from Monday night when Jo Smith the Artistic Director of Circus W.A. opened our eyes and our hearts. After the meeting, I had to find out more as I couldn't quite understand how Jo's presentation, especially the video of differently-abled people participating fitted into "circus". The website certainly promotes what I imagine a circus to be like — trapeze, tight wire walking, juggling, etc., and involvement with differently abled people appears to be an adjunct to this. The take away messages for me were that everyone is welcome, fees are somewhat incidental and needs appear to be accommodated. Almost like a large extended family. If you visit their website, for a very modest amount you can become a Friend of the Freo Big Top.

Of course, we had our annual Lift the Lid Hat Day but time got away from us and not celebrated to the fullest. However, thank you to everyone who took the time and the effort to participate and thank you for your donations. I particularly liked Keith's head gear as it reminded me of the novelty grass potato heads on sale in Fremantle Markets.

It was a pleasure to have Elise Powell, one of our RYPEN candidates join us on Monday night to give us her thumbnail sketch of the RYPEN weekend. Listening to Elise, it makes the programme come to life and re-enforces the benefits that participants gain. Well done Rotary and we should take a pat on the back.

The McCulloch's scooped the pool with wine by taking out the door prize and Colin trying to follow in Gail's footsteps and draw the Joker. Better luck next time Colin, but I am sure the bottle of Shiraz will not go astray.

Our plans for this year's Christmas Party are progressing, more news next week at the meeting but keep Monday 14 December free as that looks to be the date which is locked in for the big event, which is not too far away.

It's that time of the year when the Club is looking for members to take an active role and put their hand up to be involved in Rotary Year 2021-2022. Colin has already emailed all members with a reminder and a nomination form, so do not be shy and step forward. Act Belong Commit "ABC". The search is also on for an Incoming Club President.

TAKE A CHANCE.
YOU NEVER KNOW HOW PERFECT SOMETHING MIGHT TURN OUT TO BE.

Next Monday our guest speaker will be Julian Pace, Founder of Happiness Co. and a national and international key note speaker. See you all then.

Yours in Rotary

Neil

"Circus is for everyone"

CircusWA has a long history of working with disadvantaged youth. One way they achieve this is by offering full or partial scholarships to young people whose families can't support them to follow their circus passions.

They hold classes for all ages and all abilities from 2+ years to professional performers. The basis of all their classes is about the spirit of community, skill exploration, development and having fun. Circus is made accessible for ALL. This is achieved through funded outreach programs to organisations who work with children and youth at risk.

➤ Elise Powell, RC Attadale's RYPEN participant, reports on her intensive residential weekend experience. It was an opportunity to develop "life skills" and achieve increased confidence to help cope with the challenges of a very competitive future.

Every year, RCA members support Hat Day to help Lift the Lid on Mental Illness by donning hats and donating to the Australian Rotary Health

Celebrate the 20th Anniversary of ShelterBox

To celebrate this milestone, Mike Greenslade, CEO of ShelterBox Australia has produced a coffee table-style photography book, featuring 200 pages of full colour images captured during his deployments.

Sales of the book "2020 Vision – Eyes Wide Open in the Disaster Zone" will go towards disaster relief and help ShelterBox achieve our vision of a world where no family shelter following a disaster.

Books are $35

We need your help to sell all these books

Due to COVID 19, the Western Australian Launch of this inspirational book could not take place.

There are 175 books for sale that showcase the amazing impact ShelterBox has on the lives of those in need.

The books would make an excellent gift and only cost $35.

If you, or your Club could buy some of these books for yourselves or to on sell, it would be much appreciated.
