PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This has to be only the second time that I have written my message immediately after our meeting. Then again, needs must and I am not quite sure who said "never put off until tomorrow what you can do today".

Congratulations to John for getting his team for next year together. Do not forget that next Monday is our Annual General Meeting when we all have a chance to put forward our views and vote for the members who have nominated for next year.

We also have the Sundowner at Jim and Jenny's place on Friday, 20 November, so if you were not at the meeting this evening and wish to attend, I am sure that Jim will circulate the attendance list on Monday again, or give him a call.

Our guest speaker tonight was certainly interesting and brought home the grim realities of World War II prisoners of war. I have visited Kota Kinabalu on several occasions and know well the oppressive climate at certain times of the year. I think the last time I was when on my way to Singapore. K.K. was a transit stop and by mistake I walked out of the airport into the street with only my transit pass. Not to worry, immigration simply smiled knowingly and waved me back into the transit lounge. At that time Sabah had very generous tax incentives for business start-up and a nonstop flight to Perth with Cathay Pacific. It was almost too perfect, but sadly did not eventuate.

I quite like the idea of the Club having a green waste I.D. for bottle recycling. When various schemes were discussed over the last few years, it always seemed too hard for little return. This appears to have merit. I really don't know where Colin and Gail get their energy from as when I called Gail earlier this morning they were already well on their way to Perth from the Albany region. The weather would not have been the best but there they were this evening, smiling and organised as ever, never mind the 400km and I suppose the 6-hour plus drive towing a caravan. I would have needed a Bex and a lay down.

For those members who were unable to attend this evening. Bev gives us all a big hug and thank you on behalf of herself and Charles, who if I understand Bev correctly, will be home this Friday, so some good things do happen on a Friday 13th.

Have a great week, weather permitting and I hope to see you all next Monday.

Yours in Rotary

Neil

DONALD GORDON

Donald has spent his career in international senior leadership and consulting roles. His recently-published book 'From Technocrat to Leader' focuses on the foundational importance to leaders of earning the trust of their people. It is a self-help manual for those new to leadership roles and charts his progress from a very technocratic engineering graduate to the leader he has become. It details the lessons he had to learn about what it means to be a leader, and the wonderful experiences he has had since applying those lessons.

Donald has extensive experience in public speaking and includes leadership, safety and aviation among his themes.

THE ROTARY FOUNDATION

The Rotary Foundation (TRF) is dedicated to assisting Rotarians to “do good in the world”. By delivering financial resources and facilitating new connections, the Foundation helps clubs and districts to work together to perform meaningful, sustainable service—whether in their own community or around the world.

Our top-rated, award-winning Foundation has spent billions of dollars on life-changing, sustainable projects that help people in need to get clean water, medical care, literacy classes, and many other essentials.

It is the generosity of our members and others that allows us to bring these sustainable changes to communities in need. Ask your club’s Rotary Foundation committee chair or visit rotary.org/donate to learn how you can support our Foundation—or visit the RI Website. And to learn more, download The Rotary Foundation Reference Guide or take the Rotary Foundation Basics course in Rotary’s Learning Center.

THE ROTARY FOUNDATION IN THE REGION

One of Rotary’s six global offices is located in Parramatta in Sydney. ‘RISPPO’ supports Rotarians, clubs and districts in the South Pacific and Philip-pines and has a team supporting TRF activities—including provision of Foundation information, donor recognition and assistance with grants.

In both Australia and New Zealand, TRF has established local trusts to enable receipt of tax-deductible gifts. They are The Australian Rotary Foundation Trust, TARFT, and the New Zealand Rotary Clubs Charitable Trust, NZRCCT. Both TARFT and NZRCCT are integral parts of the Rotary organisation, rather than third party affiliates.

ROTARY GRANTS

The Rotary Foundation offers grants that support humani-tarian projects, scholarships, and vocational training teams.

- ◆ Global grants support large international projects with long-term, sustainable outcomes in one or more of Rotary’s areas of focus. They typically range from $30,000 to $200,000.
- ◆ District grants fund smaller-scale, short-term projects that address immediate needs in your community or abroad.
- ◆ Disaster Response Grants allow districts to respond extremely rapidly to local disasters, such as earthquakes, floods and bushfires. Clubs can leverage Rotary Foundation grants with District Designated Funds and SHARE funds to maximise projects’ impact. To learn more, talk to your Club or District Rotary Foundation Committee Chair or visit rotary.org/grants.

ROTARY'S AREAS OF FOCUS

Maximising impact takes focus. For The Rotary Foundation, that means supporting activities that align with Rotary's chosen causes. These are known as Rotary's seven areas of focus: ♦preventing disease ♦providing clean water ♦supporting education ♦growing local economies ♦saving mothers & children ♦promoting peace and most recently ♦supporting the environment. See www.rotary.org/our-causes

Together with ♦an approach that backs real community needs and ♦strategies to ensure projects deliver long-term sustainable benefits, the Foundation's focus on our causes dramatically increases the effectiveness of our donors' contributions.

Raise for Rotary: your new tool for doing good in the world

By Stephanie Adomaitis, manager of donor engagement for The Rotary Foundation

In my position at Rotary International, I have seen the importance of strengthening our Rotary Foundation. Funds we raise support grants that allow Rotary members to take action to solve complex issues in their communities and around the world.

I'm excited to share about a new online tool, Raise for Rotary, that will give individuals another powerful means to raise the funds necessary to support our Foundation. I have been one of the first to use Raise for Rotary, and in just a month, my online fundraising page raised $590 for PolioPlus. This may not seem like a large amount, but every contribution to the Polio Fund gets us closer to our goal to raise $50 million per year to end polio, with every dollar matched 2:1 by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.

It's easy to use – even on your cell phone – and a fun way to create a personalized virtual fundraiser to share with your friends and family, and gain support for your favorite Rotary cause. You can set up a fundraiser for any occasion, such as a birthday, anniversary, or to mark an important event like World Polio Day. Or you can take on an individual challenge to raise funds, such as a 30-mile bike ride, or fundraise as part of a team of people raising money for the same cause.

I used Raise for Rotary to create a fundraiser with my 4-year-old son, Danny. Our fundraiser was Learning to Ride so we can help end polio, and with the support of our family members, friends and Rotarians – all giving what they could – we surpassed our goal. Danny and I took daily rides and posted photos of his progress as incentive for family and friends to contribute and to give Danny extra incentive to keep going. I was able to help teach my son about the importance of contributing and making a difference, and he also learned to ride his bike!

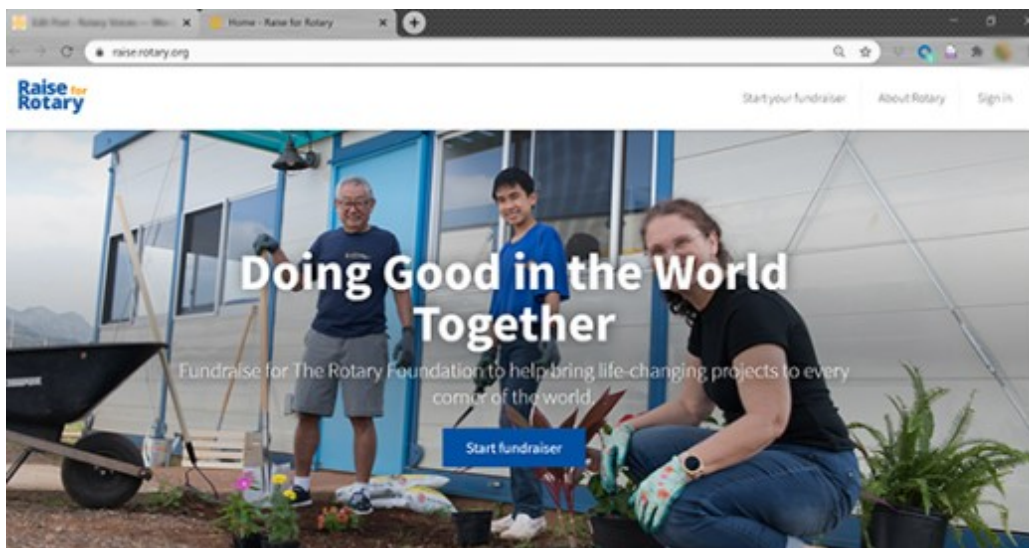

I'm excited to see first-hand how Raise for Rotary can empower us all to keep doing good in the world. If 200 people raised $500 each, that's $100,000 that will support Rotary Foundation causes, including the World Fund, Polio Fund, Disaster Response Fund, and Rotary's areas of focus.

I have been involved in grant projects that have served my community. I am passionate about expanding our fundraising efforts. It's rewarding to be part of the development team introducing Rotary's very own peer-to-peer fundraising tool. With Raise for Rotary, you create fundraising pages that are easy to share through social media and email so your network of family, friends, colleagues and neighbors can contribute. Members of Rotary and Rotaract who give are eligible to receive credit and recognition.

This great new tool is currently only available in English with U.S. currency. But we are already planning to expand it to support multiple languages and currency in 2021.

As we work toward that goal, we hope you will take advantage of this tool's potential to increase your support, and show the world how Rotarians are people of action – doing so much good in the world.

When you start a Raise for Rotary fundraiser, a Rotary fundraising coach will contact you to offer support and guidance. For questions, refer to the FAQs or contact raise@rotary.org.
