Attendance

President Gail has been in contact with Tompkins on Swan management regarding when we notify them of meal orders for our Monday meeting, as we start a new year.

At the end of last year, in their busier months, they asked us to notify them on Friday mornings. so, to maintain a routine we will stick with Friday and carry on as we have been doing.

If you are NOT attending or you are a visitor please let Gillian know by 7.00pm on the Thursday prior to the Monday meeting.

Annual Charity Golf Day and Music in the Air Concert

The committees for the Annual Charity Golf Day to be held on Friday 6 March and the Music in the Air Concert to be held on Saturday 28 March have been meeting, and plans are well underway.

We will soon be asking people to help with certain jobs.

It is great that not only members offer their help but also their partners.

This is what makes our Club so great.

20th Anniversary of ShelterBox

At our Dinner Meeting on April 6, we will host the 20th Anniversary of ShelterBox with the launch of the ShelterBox 2020 Vision book

The guest speaker will be Mike Greenslade, CEO of ShelterBox.

His talk will be very interesting and inspiring, so please invite family and friends to come and hear about and see the amazing work that is done by the ShelterBox team.

The books will be on display and for sale.

The Trybooking site is open for people to book for this event and the direct link is below.

Used Stamps

Robin Hamilton sent out an email reminding everyone to save used postage stamps and give them to him. He passes them on to Honorary member Trevor Leaver who delivers them to be used for Rotary Projects.

Melville Rotaract

Andrew Korol from the newly formed Melville Rotaract group spoke about the Quiz Night they are planning to hold on Feb 28.

If you would like to support these young people, please let Gillian know. We already have some people indicating they will attend.

See poster later in the Bulletin.

Induction of Joyce Smith

President Gail McCulloch said it was a great pleasure and privilege to welcome Joyce Smith into membership of the Rotary Club of Attadale and the Global Rotary Family.

Joyce with daughters Jacqui and Mel and son Scott

Gail was delighted to announce that Carole Maxwell will be Joyce's Mentor and Sponsor.

Carole introduced Joyce and gave a brief outline of Joyce's life, from the time she arrived in Australia from Aberdeen in Scotland at the age of thirteen.

Joyce worked in finance as an acceptance officer.

She and her husband Brett had three children and now have four grandchildren. Sadly, Brett passed away in 2017.

Joyce is a regular volunteer at Vinnies and is keen to make a difference in the lives of those in need.

President Gail, Jeff Spickett, Joyce Smith and Carole Maxwell

After the presentation ceremony, President Gail congratulated Joyce saying: "I know you will find inspiration in service, and enjoyment in the fellowship of this Club and I look forward with confidence to your participation, contribution, and utilizing your energy and talents, to help us progress the Mission of Rotary International.”

Joyce was invited to speak and said she was very grateful for the warm and friendly way she had been welcomed, and was looking forward to enjoying the great fellowship as well as contributing to the projects the club undertakes.

The members and friends all came forward to personally welcome her as a member of the Rotary Club of Attadale

Guest Speaker Jennifer Merigan
Editor ~ Have-A-Go-News ~ ‘A Bit of History’

President Gail McCulloch, Ian Pittaway and Jennifer Merigan

Have a Go News was established in 1991, and is the ONLY wholly family owned and longest running lifestyle and information newspaper for the mature market in Western Australian.

Over the years Have a Go News has received many acknowledgements and awards, including winning the WA Senior Awards, 2000, 2006, 2010, was a finalist in WA Heritage Awards, 2009. They won the 2011 media award for the Bethanie Medallion and many other accolades.

It is a monthly newspaper offering lifestyle options and information for people 50 and over in WA. They offer a digital version and hard copy and an active Facebook page, which offers a variety of competitions, activities, information and lots of fun!

Their mission is to sustain and provide mature Western Australians with a voice and connection to their community through the pages of Have a Go News.

Jennifer entertained the meeting with stories of happenings in the fifties and sixties. She brought back many memories and was a delightful guest speaker.
