Guest Speaker ~ Warren Duffy ~ 'Lost Perth'

Mick enjoyed being able to introduce the guest speaker.

Attadale Rotary Club members, family and friends enjoyed a delightful trip down memory lane with Warren Duffy. He rekindled memories of years gone by and had everyone enjoying the experience.

Warren explained that before the books were written he established the Facebook page 'Lost Perth'. It was dedicated to preserving photos and memories of the good old days in Perth.

Mick Donnes, President Ian Pittaway and Warren Duffy

Founder Warren Duffy says he wanted to unearth Perth's history to save it for the future. He started chatting to people, listening to their stories, collecting their old photos, and away it went. He posted photos, films, stories, memories - and they touched a nerve.

The site is a collection of old images and stories of Perth, focusing on the way things used to be and the old buildings and businesses that have disappeared, and it captured Perth's imagination.

Warren attributes the site's success to people's fond memories of the good old days. He tried posting weightier issues, about the Birnies, and Alan Bond, but the locals did not like it. They want to remember the good times.

Warren Duffy was keen to preserve those sorts of memories before it was too late. He wanted to put those memories and stories in print, so they'll have a place in history forever.

Lost Perth, Volumes 1 and 2. These books are picture-driven with images that follow the history of Perth, Western Australia moving through the decades and bring back wonderful memories of times gone by. There are old family photos also moving through the decades and the Great War, roaring twenties, the great depression, World War II, the booming fifties with their hooped skirts and perfectly coiffed hair and the swinging sixties, seventies and eighties.

A collection of Perth memories and iconic scenes from eras gone by in our wonderful city!

Milk came in glass bottles

Trams in the city

Building the Narrows

A drive in Kings Park

Can you recognize/remember any of these items?
If you want any information ask Colin, he collects such things!!!!

Orange Sky is the world's first free mobile laundry service for people experiencing homelessness; an idea founded in Brisbane by two, 20 year old mates, Nic and Lucas. In Late 2014 the boys installed a couple of washing machines in their old van and visited parks around Brisbane to wash and dry clothes for free. What started out as an idea to improve hygiene standards and restore dignity has evolved into something much bigger. Lisa will tell you the whole story.
