Memorial Party

Carole, her daughters and family held a farewell party for the late David Maxwell at Tompkins on Swan last Saturday.

The celebrant, Diana Stevenson, daughters Sarah and Pip, nephews David and Andy and grandchildren Arianna and Alex all shared wonderful memories of David.

We enjoyed a slideshow of David, family and friends over the years, accompanied by some of his favourite music.

To bring the formalities to a close everyone sang along with John Williamson's 'True Blue'.

Guest Speakers

Maree De Giambattista, Manager Administrative Services and Erin Charleson, Team Leader at Yorganop

President Gail McCulloch, Erin Charleson, Maree De Giambattista, Abby and Kerry Parsons

As Western Australia's only Aboriginal foster care agency, Yorganop work in partnership with government agencies and their ever-growing community of carers to provide safe and secure homes and care for Aboriginal children.

While the immediate safety and wellbeing of the children is their priority, they have a bigger mission, which is to provide the support and guidance Aboriginal children need to stay connected with their culture, promoting a clear sense of belonging, identity and self-worth.

It isn't simply about ensuring no Aboriginal child is left without a loving home. It's also about helping every child fulfil their potential and thrive – socially, emotionally, and in life.

Every day, five more Aboriginal children require foster care. Their carer community provides the life-changing shelter, safety and security these children need.

Being taken into foster care can be an unsettling experience for children. Everything changes, sometimes quite literally overnight. That's why they give every child in their care a friend to take with them – Yorgi Bear.

Yorgi provides comfort at this time of uncertainty. He's a constant companion.

You can buy a Yorgi Bear for $20 and all profits go to support Yorganop and the life-changing care they provide.

Maree and Erin gave a very interesting and informative talk about the work Yorganop does.

Music in the Air DVD

Colin filmed the concert and has burned a number of very good DVDs that are for sale for $10.00. If you would like one please contact Colin.

<http://www.sso.org.au/>

Established in February 2011, the South Side Symphony Orchestra, SSSO, is based in Melville and has a regular membership of 50 enthusiastic musicians from diverse backgrounds. What unites us is the passion and pleasure in making and performing music with and for others. We are grateful to our Musical Director, Laurissa Wyllie-McCarthy, and consider ourselves very fortunate to have Laurissa lead our team of passionate musicians.

It is a great privilege to bring "Music in the Air" to you today — a collaboration between the Rotary Club of Attadale and SSSO. Proceeds from this concert will be donated to the Royal Flying Doctor Service (WA).

DVD produced by Colin McCulloch, Rotary Club of Attadale

Winners

Congratulations to Colin who won the Door Prize and Patricia who won the Raffle but not the Joker.

Thumbnail Sketch

Llew Withers shared with us lots of interesting memories of his childhood, being one of six children, two girls and four boys, who have all grown up to be successful adults.

When he was young, he joined cubs and scouts and has stayed with the organisation over the years.

He also shared his journey of how he worked through various jobs and where they finally led him.

Reports

Ian gave a Family of Rotary report. He said about thirty-five Rotarians and partners attended David Maxwell's Farewell Party and helped give him a great send off.

Today is a year since our beloved Max Anderson passed away.

Ron and Nancy Day's son Matt has gone home from hospital and is undergoing dialysis treatment three times a week.

Gillian told of the Rotaract Forum she attended on the weekend. There were about forty people there from Rotary and Rotaract.

The main aim of the Forum was to look at the strengths and weaknesses of Rotaract and how Rotary can help. The ideas will be collated and sent to the Boards to consider.

It was felt there needs to be more interaction between Rotary and Rotaract. Rotaractors may find the cost of attending Rotary meeting prohibitive.

One of the participants had attended a Rotary youth programme which led to him being introduced to Rotary.

Spend a Happy Dollar

Rod ran an entertaining Happy Dollar and Fines session.

Happy Dollars

Abby's has been with Kerry for 22 years and will have been married to him for 15 years on the 25th.

Jeff won a gold award for a photograph he took in the city of Perth.

Thank You

Thank you to Heather for the delicious banana cake enjoyed with tea and coffee.
